

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Season One of #LiveWithMary a huge success

The fourth successful episode of #LiveWithMary went out across Mary Haddock-Staniland's followers on her Facebook page tonight, bringing to a close the first season of the hit live segments.

Strong reach and viewership has proven the show, hosted by the vivacious Transgender Personality, is set for a more permanent weekly slot in the future.

"I'm traveling a lot over the coming weeks, taking the time to seek new and exciting guests and great sponsors, ensuring the second season of the show is bigger and better," says Haddock-Staniland.

The entire #LiveWithMary team is excited for what comes next for the show. "Mary has a real gift, she is such a talented presenter with a bright career ahead, that's clear," says Producer Andrew Gray, who was instrumental in forming the YouTube channel Mary TV back in 2006.

"Any sponsors that get involved with Mary are lucky to align with someone with such a proven track record for success," says Publicist Miranda Likeman. "Her social media following alone has doubled in the past 12 months and is currently reaching hundreds of thousands of people influenced by what she has to say."

To be a part of Season Two of #LiveWithMary, contact:
Miranda Likeman, Publicist, publicity@maryhadstan.com or 027 296 2124